

Rickaby & Co dash to raise cash!

December 2009

Liz Baranov, Practice Manager at Rickaby & Co, the Accountants and business advisors in Claridge Court, Berkhamsted, has donned a Santa suit to help raised funds for the Chilterns MS Centre, based in Wendover.

The Centre helps sufferers of Multiple Sclerosis, a debilitating disease of the central nervous system, providing drug-free symptom management therapies as well as advice and support for those with the illness and their families.

The current focus of the Centre's fundraising is their new building that is under development, which will provide enhanced facilities to MS sufferers.

Liz and the team at Rickaby & Co have gathered promises of sponsorship from clients, friends and family to help boost the Centres funds, and have pledged to make an additional donation rather than send Christmas cards this year.

'Many charities have felt the impact of the recession on their income, so we thought that this one was one way in which we could help. The run was great fun, yet had a serious message, in raising funds for and awareness of the MS Centre and the work that they do.' said Liz. 'Every year we send Christmas cards to clients, suppliers and our large network of associates and contacts, but this year we thought that we would donate the savings from this to the Centre instead.'
